FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

At a meeting of its general membership on Monday, October 2, 2017, the Louisiana District Judges Association elected new officers for the 2017-2018 term. The officers are as follows:

President - Judge C. Wendell Manning, 4th Judicial District Court

First Vice President - Judge Lisa Woodruff-White, East Baton Rouge Family Court

Second Vice President - Judge Guy Bradberry, 14th Judicial District Court

Secretary - Judge Brady O'Callaghan, 1st Judicial District Court

Treasurer - Judge Piper Griffin, Orleans Civil District Court

Immediate Past President - Judge John J. Molaison, 24th Judicial District Court

The Louisiana District Judges Association is a professional nonprofit corporation established in 1981. All Louisiana District Judges with general jurisdiction and Judges of Juvenile and Family Courts are eligible for membership. The mission of the LDJA includes the administration of justice, representation of the interests of judges, and the professional development of its membership to provide the greatest access to fair, just, and responsive trial courts.

Louisiana Supreme Court Justice Marcus R. Clark administered the oath of office to the newly elected officers, who will serve from October 2, 2017 through September 30, 2018.
